Annalyn Black

Hi, I'm Annalyn Black. I am in seventh grade this year. I enjoy spending time with my new cat, Oliver, and my dogs, Noah and Mabel. I started wheelchair tennis with Dee Henry, then moved to Coach Keith after a couple of years. I have played tennis since I was in TK, and I am now 13.
I also play softball, both with Dodgerfilms on YouTube and with my wheelchair softball team. I play baseball as well, along with pickleball, wheelchair racing, and sometimes table tennis. My favorite sport is baseball, and my favorite team is the Boston Red Sox. My favorite player is Jarren Duran. I am also a huge fan of the San Jose Spartans and Reid Montgomery - a good friend of mine.

Sports are my life!

...but I'm an Actress, too! This year, I am in my third school musical, and we are performing Alice in Wonderland. Along with school shows, I sometimes perform with MYART. This year, my main focus is my school show. I was cast as Mathilda, Alice's sister, and also the Caterpillar. My friend Olivia is playing Alice, so rehearsals are even more enjoyable.

I love having the opportunity to play tennis with Coaches Keith and Kirk every week and being on court with all our T3 players. Thank you to all the sponsors who support the program. I am very grateful. Thank you for taking the time to read my bio.

"Coach Dee used to run Friday evening workshops just before her annual Wheelchair Tennis Tournament. That's when we first met Annalyn, 5 years ago, a very fast-moving young girl in a little orange wheelchair. She uses her speed effectively on the courts and has a great celebratory laugh when hitting winners, especially against the boys! Myra and I really enjoy watching her sing in musicals with her theater group in Los Alamitos." - Coach Keith Annalyn's pathway to college just might be on the track. She's very fast - check out her new chair she got last Christmas. The University of Illinois in Champaign-Urbana has a world-renowned adaptive track program, under Coach Adam Bleakney. They will be blessed to have Annalyn on their team. Go Fighting Illini!
